- (f) conditions and modes of appointment of examiners or conduct of or standard of examinations or any other course of study ;
- (g) mode of enrolment or admission of students ; and
- (h) examinations to be recognized as equivalent to University examinations.

(2) The Academic Council shall have the power to propose Regulations on all the matters specified in (a) to (h) above and matter incidental and related thereto.

18. Power of authorities to make Regulations.—An authority of the University shall have the power to make Regulations, in the manner prescribed by the Statutes, for the conduct of its affairs and the affairs of the committees constituted by such authority, and such Regulations shall not be inconsistent with the provisions of this Act, Statutes and the Ordinances of the University.

CHAPTER VII

Review Commission

19. Appointment of a University Review Commission.—(1) The Chancellor shall, atleast once in every five years, or as and when required, constitute a Commission to review the working of the University and to make recommendations.

(2) The Commission shall consist of not less than three eminent educationists, one of whom shall be the Chairman of such Commission appointed by the Chancellor in consultation with the State Government.

(3) The terms and conditions of the appointment of the members shall be such as the Chancellor may determine.

(4) The Commission shall after holding such inquiry as it deems fit, make its recommendation to the Chancellor.

(5) The Chancellor may, in consultation with the State Government, take such action, as he deems fit on the recommendation made by the Review Commission for the working and development of the University.

20. Action not to be invalidated merely on the ground of defect in the constitution, vacancy, etc.—No act, or rule or proceedings of the General Council, the Executive Council, the Academic Council or any other authority or body of the University shall be invalidated only on the ground or grounds that such authority or body is not duly constituted or there is a defect in its constitution or reconstitution at any time, or that there is a vacancy in the membership thereof.

21. Removal of difficulties at the commencement.—If any difficulty arises with respect to the establishment of the University or in connection with the first meeting of any authority of the University or otherwise, in giving effect to the provisions of this Act and the Regulations, the Chancellor may, at any time, before all authorities of the University have been constituted, by order, make any appointment or do anything consistent, so far as may be, with the provisions of this Act and the Regulations, which appear to him necessary or expedient for the purpose of removing the difficulty and every such order shall have effect as if such appointment or action had been made or taken in the manner provided in this Act and the Regulations :

Provided that before making any such order, the Chancellor shall ascertain and consider the opinion of the Vice Chancellor and of such appropriate authority of the University as may have been constituted.

22. Transitory provisions.—Notwithstanding anything contained in this Act and the Regulations, the First Vice Chancellor may, subject to the availability of funds, discharge all or any of the functions of the University for the purpose of carrying out the provisions of this Act and the Regulations and for that purpose may exercise any powers or perform any duties, which by this Act and the Regulations are to be exercised or performed by any authority of the University until such authority comes into existence as provided by this Act and the Regulations, and ratifies the same.

23. Authorities and officers of the University.—The authorities of the University and their composition, powers, functions and other matters relating to them and the officers of University and their appointment, powers, functions and other matters relating to them and all other matters relating to the financial powers, teaching, administration and management of the affairs of the University shall be governed by the provisions as specified in the Schedule and subject to the provisions of this Act shall also be governed by the Regulations as may be made under the provisions of this Act.

24. Indemnity.—No suit, prosecution or other legal proceedings shall lie against, and no damages shall be claimed from, the University, the Chancellor, the Vice Chancellor, the authorities or officers of the University or any other person in respect of anything which is in good faith done or purported to have been done in pursuance of this Act or any Regulations made thereunder.
