

CONDOLENCE MESSAGE ON THE SAD DEMISE OF MR. PIYUSH AGRAWAL – STUDENT OF HNLU

*“Perhaps one day you touch the young branch of something beautiful. & it grows & grows
despite your birthdays & the death certificate, & it one day shades the heads of something beautiful or makes itself useful to the nest. Walk out of your house, then, believing in this. Nothing else matters.*

All above us is the touching of strangers parrots, some of them human, some of them not human.

Listen to me. I am telling you a true thing. This is the only kingdom. The kingdom of touching; the touches of the disappearing, things.”

- Aracelis Girmay, "Elegy" from Kingdom Animalia

The sudden demise of Mr. Piyush Agrawal, 4th year student of HNLU due to a thunder storm attack has shocked the entire HNLU fraternity. The demise of a promising young would be lawyer and a bright student of HNLU is an irreparable loss for the University and his family.

The University conducted a condolence meeting in remembrance of Mr. Piyush with faculty, staff and students speaking in remembrance of him amongst them.

The Vice-Chancellor, Faculty, Staff and Students of HNLU extend heartfelt condolences on the untimely demise of Mr. Piyush Agrawal. Our thoughts and prayers are with the bereaved family at their irreparable loss. We pray to the Almighty for the strength to all the family members to get through this extremely depressing and difficult time.
