ABOUT HNLU

Established in 2003 by the Government of Chhattisgarh, Hidayatullah National Law University (HNLU) will be completing a journey of two decades in July 2023. In such a short span of time, HNLU has carved out a niche in the realm of legal education across India and the legacy is soaring towards newer heights day by day. Named after the great legal luminary Justice Mohammed Hidayatullah, the University was established by the Government of Chhattisgarh under the Hidayatullah National University of Law, Chhattisgarh, Act (Act no.10 of 2003). HNLU is the sixth in the series of national law schools across India. HNLU has been included in the list of the universities maintained by the University Grants Commission under section 2 (f) of the UGC Act, 1956 and has been declared fit to receive central assistance in terms of the rules framed under section 12 (b) of the UGC Act, 1956. The University is recognized by the Bar Council of India under section 7 of the Advocates Act 1961.

Motto: Dharma Sansthapanartham meaning 'for the sake of establishing the primacy of the laws of eternal values.'

ABOUT NATIONAL COMMISSION FOR WOMEN

The National Commission for Women was set up as a statutory body in January 1992 under the National Commission for Women Act, 1990 with a mandate to advise the government on all policy matters affecting women in addition to reviewing legal and constitutional safeguards for women under section 10 of the National Commission for Women Act, 1990.

The Commission investigates and examines all the matters relating to women under the Constitution and other laws, and presents its report to the Central Government for the proper implementation.

The Commission undertakes promotional and educational research so as to suggest ways of ensuring due representation of women in all spheres and to identify factors responsible for impeding their advancement, such as, lack of access to housing and basic services, inadequate support services and technologies for reducing drudgery and occupational health hazards and for increasing their productivity. NCW is dedicated towards the betterment of the society and ensuring the rights of women through various schemes, drives and programmes.

ABOUT THE EVENT

In a world which is increasingly becoming competitive, it is very important that an individual is competent, skilled, and productive. Also, he/she should be able to communicate with conviction and convincingly which makes us to stand out. Personality Development becomes more crucial in modern days as we navigate through personal and professional relationships as it enables us to be effective in communication and agreeable in approach. The Capacity Building & Personality Development Programme by Hidayatullah National Law University, Raipur, in collaboration with National Commission for Women aims at developing the communication and interpersonal skills of an individual. This programme intends to help the Undergraduate and Postgraduate girl students of Chhattisgarh to learn soft-skills and techniques that are required to gain a competitive edge during placement and job interviews.

This programme focuses on enabling students for entering into job/employment market. It also emphasises on learning and applying the use of intuitive, logical and critical thinking, communication and interpersonal skills, not limited to cognitive/creative skills. These skills and behavior set, when learned, will enhance outcome of employability.
