ABOUT HNLU

Hidayatullah National Law University (HNLU), named after one of the country's greatest legal luminaries, Hon'ble Shri Justice Mohammad Hidayatullah, was established in 2003 by the Government of Chhattisgarh under the Hidayatullah National University of Law, Chhattisgarh Act (No. 10 of 2003). Nestled in the lush green surroundings of the meticulously planned city of Nava Raipur, HNLU stands as one of the premier destinations for legal education in the country, attracting students from all across India.

The University boasts state-of-the-art academic and residential facilities for its students, faculty, and staff. Hon'ble Mr. Justice Aniruddha Bose, Judge, Supreme Court of India is the Visitor, Hon'ble Mr. Justice Ramesh Sinha, Chief Justice, High Court of Chhattisgarh is the Chancellor, Prof. (Dr.) V.C. Vivekanandan is the Vice-Chancellor, and Dr. Vipin Kumar is the Registrar (I/c) of the University.

Embodying its motto, 'Dharma Sansthapanartham,' which translates to 'for the sake of establishing the primacy of the laws of eternal values,' HNLU is committed to imparting quality legal education. It actively engages in teaching and research and aims to foster in its students a deep sense of responsibility to serve society in the realm of law, emphasizing advocacy and legal reforms. As HNLU celebrates its 20th year of 'Excellence in Legal Education' in 2023, it remains poised to reach even greater heights in its commitment to and contribution towards legal education.

HNLU is the sixth in the series of National Law Schools across India. The University is on the list maintained by the University Grants Commission under Section 2(f) of the UGC Act, 1956, and has been deemed eligible to receive Central assistance as per the rules outlined in Section 12 (B) of the UGC Act, 1956. Further, the university is recognized by the Bar Council of India under Section 7 of the Advocates Act, 1961. Notably, HNLU ranked 5th among the National Law Schools in the India Today Rankings for 2021, 2022, and 2023. It also achieved a rank of 51-100 in crisis management during COVID in the World's Universities with Real Impact (WURI) Rankings for 2021 and 2022, and placed between 201-300 among innovative and emerging Universities by WURI. The institution is geared up to set new benchmarks in the upcoming years.

MESSAGE FROM THE VICE-CHANCELLOR

I hope this message finds you well. As a recruiter in the legal field, you undoubtedly understand the importance of identifying and attracting top talent to your organization. It is with great pleasure that I extend this invitation to you to explore the graduating class of 2025 from Hidayatullah National Law University (HNLU).

Our institution takes immense pride in nurturing students who not only possess strong academic credentials but also demonstrate a commitment to excellence, integrity, and innovation in the legal profession. The graduating class of 2025 is no exception.

Over the past four years, these students have undergone a comprehensive educational journey at HNLU, emphasizing critical thinking, problem-solving, and professional ethics. Their educational experience has been enriched through a variety of avenues including lectures, case law analysis, moot court sessions, internships, specialized courses, and interactions with experts in law and policy.

Despite the challenges posed by the pandemic, this batch has demonstrated remarkable resilience and determination, continuing their academic pursuits on campus for the past year with unwavering commitment. They have seized opportunities to gain practical experience through internships at prestigious law firms, think tanks, international organizations, alongside esteemed litigators, NGOs, and higher judicial institutions, fostering a deep understanding of the legal landscape.

Furthermore, the graduating class has showcased exceptional prowess in moot court competitions, alternative dispute resolution (ADR) competitions, and parliamentary debates, earning numerous accolades and awards.

We extend a warm invitation to visit our dynamic campus and engage with these talented and ambitious individuals. They have not only enriched our institution but also possess the potential to significantly contribute to the legal profession and the recruiting organizations they may join. With their merit and dedication, we are confident they will excel in their chosen paths. I extend my heartfelt wishes for their success and endeavours ahead.

PROF. (DR.) V.C. VIVEKANANDAN
VICE CHANCELLOR
HIDAYATULLAH NATIONAL LAW UNIVERSITY

MESSAGE FROM THE REGISTRAR (I/c)

I am pleased to introduce you to the graduating class of 2025. At HNLU, we take pride in nurturing legal minds that are not only academically sound but also equipped with practical skills and a strong ethical foundation. Our comprehensive curriculum, state-of-the-art facilities, and dedicated faculty ensure that our students are well-prepared to face the challenges of the legal profession.

Some of the key points for considering our students are:

Academic Excellence: Our rigorous academic programs are designed to provide students with a solid foundation in legal principles and practices;

Practical Training: We emphasize practical learning through moot court competitions, internships, and legal clinics, ensuring that our graduates are ready for the real-world challenges of the legal profession;

Ethical Leadership: HNLU instills a sense of ethical responsibility and social justice in our students, fostering leaders who contribute positively to the legal community and society; and Diverse Talents: Our student body is diverse, bringing together individuals with unique perspectives, experiences, and talents, creating a dynamic and enriching learning environment.

We believe that our students have the potential to be valuable assets to your organization. We invite you to visit our website or our campus to learn more about our law school and the opportunities we offer. We look forward to hearing from you soon.

Message from the Deans

DR. YOGENDRA KUMAR
SRIVASTAVA
Professor of Law & Dean

Dear Recruiters,

It is with great pleasure that I extend warm greetings to you on behalf of Hidayatullah National Law University, Raipur. As the Dean for Post-graduate Studies, I take immense pride in introducing you to the exceptional talent nurtured within our undergraduate program - 5-year integrated B.A., LL.B. (Hons.).

At HNLU, we are committed to fostering not only legal expertise but also instilling a deep sense of integrity, responsibility, and professionalism in our students. Our rigorous academic curriculum, coupled with practical learning experiences, equips our graduates with the necessary skills to thrive in the dynamic field of law.

Our students embody a unique blend of academic excellence, critical thinking, and a passion for justice. They are adept at legal research, analysis, and advocacy, making them valuable assets to any organization they become a part of. Beyond academics, our students are actively engaged in various co-curricular and extracurricular activities, honing their leadership, communication, and interpersonal skills.

HNLU boasts state-of-the-art infrastructure and modern amenities that facilitate a conducive learning environment. Our library is well-stocked with a vast collection of legal resources, ensuring that students have access to the latest legal literature and research materials. Additionally, our moot court halls, seminar rooms, and advanced language labs provide students with practical exposure to courtroom proceedings and legal practice simulations.

To our esteemed recruiters, I invite you to consider HNLU as your preferred destination for talent acquisition. By recruiting our students, you are not only gaining access to top-tier legal minds but also investing in the future of your organization. Our graduates are well-prepared to meet the challenges of the legal profession and contribute meaningfully to the success of your firm or corporation.

Whether you represent a prestigious law firm, a corporate powerhouse, or a government agency, our students possess the skills, knowledge, and dedication to excel in diverse legal settings. We take pride in our strong alumni network, with graduates making significant contributions to the legal fraternity both nationally and internationally.

To conclude, I extend my heartfelt gratitude to all our esteemed recruiters for considering HNLU as a partner in talent acquisition. Together, let us forge lasting partnerships and empower the next generation of legal professionals to shape a more just and equitable society.

DR. DEEPAK KUMAR
SRIVASTAVA
Associate Professor & Dean

Dear Recruiters,

Greetings from the Dean of the Undergraduate Studies at Hidayatullah National Law University Raipur!

I am delighted to introduce you to our young, dynamic and talented batch of students who are ready to take on the challenges and opportunities of the legal profession. The effective knowledge gained by the students through rigorous academic and co-curricular activities and the constant grooming by the intellectually rich faculty members shape the students of our university to excel in even a very demanding environment. They have also developed the essential skills of communication, teamwork, problem-solving, and leadership through various projects, internships, and extracurricular activities.

Our students are eager to apply their knowledge and skills to your organization and contribute to your success. They are adaptable, resilient, and creative, and can thrive in any environment. I am confident that this Batch is enabled in all respects to shoulder the challenge and complex professional responsibilities in the times to come.

I invite you to explore our student profiles, attend our campus events, and connect with our recruitment coordination committee team to learn more about our students and how they can add value to your organization. I am confident that you will be impressed by the quality and diversity of our students, and that you will find the best fit for your hiring needs.

Thank you for your interest in our students and our university. I look forward to hearing from you soon and building a long-term partnership with you.

DR. AVINASH SAMAL

UNIVERSITY INFRASTRUCTURE

HNLU is a fully residential university located in Naya Raipur, Chhattisgarh, India. The campus spans across 70 acres and features a curricular-cum-administrative building designed to resemble the Parliament of India. The building houses an auditorium, conference halls, classrooms, moot court complexes, a library, a computer lab, and a unique language lab. The Amphitheatre at its centre is a semblance of Athenian architecture and is tastefully used for cultural activities and common gatherings.

The campus also has separate hostels for girls and boys, faculty and staff quarters, and a guest house. It is fully Wi-Fi-enabled and equipped with all the modern state-of-the-art amenities, making HNLU a complete destination for living and learning.

LIBRARY

The library of HNLU is considered as a laboratory of a scientific institute, where the apparatus for the law students are the classic law books, case law reports, and journals that are available in full sets. One of the special features of the Library is the Hidayatullah Collection, which is a collection of books donated from the personal collection of Justice Mohammad Hidayatullah.

MOOT COURT HALLS

HNLU is one of the very few universities in India to include moot court exercises as a compulsory part of every legal subject. The University has five Moot Court halls which are used by students for Benchmark Rounds and intra-university Challengers and can be seen in their complete glory during the Justice Hidayatullah Memorial International Moot Court Competition.

SMART CLASSROOMS

The classrooms are equipped with smart class connections, display boards, aesthetic furnishing and projectors. Additionally, a high-speed broadband connection facilitates easy access to any required information. In such hi-tech classrooms, it becomes easy for the faculty to derive even the most complex and technical concepts from easy illustrations, presentations and online resources.

COMPUTER LAB

The University has a fully air-conditioned Computer Lab with a sufficiently large number of desktop, computers with internet connectivity and access to all . Since project presentation is a part of every subject taught at HNLU, students find the Computer Lab extremely useful for preparing their project reports and memorials for moot court exercises.

RECREATION GROUNDS

Believing in the philosophy of “A healthy mind in a healthy body”, HNLU boasts a state-of-the-art gymnasium in the central hostels with indoor badminton courts and a table tennis facility at both boys and girls hostel complexes. Outdoor facilities include a cricket ground, a lawn tennis court, two basketball courts and one volleyball court, respectively. Adequate facilities are available for other sporting activities as well.

LIFE AT HNLU

Life at HNLU is filled with enriching learning experiences that go beyond just disseminating legal knowledge.

The University prepares students for life ahead not only by teaching the contours of law, but by nurturing a vibrant student community. Students engage in a diverse range of academic and extracurricular activities like moot court, seminars, debates, conferences, Model United Nations, cultural festivals and sports. Through these activities, students develop ethos of teamwork, cooperation, trust and the ability to adapt to challenges. In summary, HNLU students learn more than just law; they learn valuable life skills to take charge and lead in all spheres.

STUDENT AND UNIVERSITY INITIATIVES

Societies and Committees

The comprehensive development of students is the ultimate goal of all the student committees. Not only are these committees the best approach to encourage extracurricular activities, but they are also an excellent way to instil the qualities of leadership and teamwork in the students.

The following are the most active student committees at the University:

Literary and Debating Committee:

The Literary and Debating Committee has been a part of Hidayatullah National Law University's Student Bar Association since its inception. The main objectives of the committee are to communicate the skill of debating, encourage intellectual discussions and foster an appreciation for literary arts amongst the student community.

The committee conducts regular debates, discussions and quizzes to achieve its objectives.

Kautilya Society:

The Kautilya Society at HNLU is a student initiative set up by the Vidhi Centre for Legal Policy to widen access to legislative drafting and analysis and empower young minds to explore public policy as a career path. The Centre conducts legal research with the aim to identify gaps in law, policy, governance or regulation and contribute to public policy discourse by hosting discussions and events on recent legal policy developments. The societies are currently in eight law schools across the country and compose of around 100 students.

IP Law Post:

The IP Law Post, founded in 2020, is a student-driven initiative aimed towards facilitating dialogue on domestic and global IPR developments.

It is an endeavour to create an inclusive and open space that bridges the gap between students, researchers, academicians and professionals and brings together everyone with a keen interest in Intellectual Property Law.

Progressive Constitutional Law Society:

The Progressive Constitutional Law Society was established in the year 2019. It is an initiative by the students of Hidayatullah National Law University to educate and promote discourse related to the Constitution of India and the values of Constitutionalism. The society undertakes various exercises which raise awareness amongst the students and the public about matters related to the Indian Constitution. The society has also organised lectures by distinguished lawyers including Gautam Bhatia, Alok Prasanna, Abhinav Sekhri among others.

Books & Beyond:

Books & Beyond was established in 2022. It is a student run independent initiative to create greater awareness and foster discourse about literature in law school and to start a conversation amongst the students about literature even after it ceases to be a part of the curriculum.

It also organizes several exercises such as open mics and poetry recitals to create an atmosphere conducive to growth of literature enthusiasts in the college. As a part of the Club activities, a blog is also managed by the students, where poetry, prose and opinions around literature are published.

HNLU Corporate and Commercial Law Blog:

The HNLU Corporate and Commercial Law Blog is established under the Corporate and Commercial Law Society of Hidayatullah National Law University, Raipur. The Society, created in 2017, is an independent, student-run body formed by corporate law enthusiasts of HNLU solely intending to promote discourse and awareness on laws of a corporate nature. The aim of the blog is to create a knowledge exchange platform for research scholars, practitioners, academicians, students and pursuant of related fields.

Moot Court and Conference Committee:

The Moot Court & Conferences Committee under the aegis of the Hon'ble Vice Chancellor is tasked with the responsibility of facilitating the participation of students in various Moots and Alternative Dispute Resolution Competitions held nationally as well as internationally.

The Committee also undertakes various exercises to help the students in learning the nuances of Mooting and ADR competitions including but not limited to workshops, orientation sessions and intra-batch competitions.

Society for Arbitration Law

The Society for Arbitration Law, HNLU is a student run initiative which aims to promote discourse in arbitration law.

The society undertakes various informal discussions on recent arbitration law related developments, holds meetings to educate its members on the Arbitration Act, 1996 and provides an opportunity for students to hone their knowledge in both international and domestic arbitration.

It regularly conducts discussions on topics revolving around arbitration law, in an attempt to create an open space for debate and discourse.

HNLU Legal Aid and Social Services Committee:

The Legal Aid and Social Services Committee was established with the aim of furthering the goals of justice and social welfare. The committee actively hosts a variety of activities in furtherance of its objectives including youth conferences, awareness camps and regional consultations. Moreover, the committee annually organises blood donation camps, Lok Adalats and various legal awareness sessions. Through these activities, the committee strives to make a meaningful impact on society and strives to promote access to justice for all.

CLASS OF 2025

The first batch of HNLU graduated in 2008. The Class of 2025 is entrusted with the formidable responsibility of establishing their own value while continuing the legacy established by preceding graduating classes from 2008 to the present day, 2024.

The cohort consists of students selected from various regions across the nation, fostering an intellectually stimulating and captivating academic setting while also cultivating the values of harmonious cohabitation among fellow students. Among the many attributes that distinguish the class, their dedication to maintaining the integrity of the vocation they have selected is the most conspicuous.

The professions pursued by the graduating class are extremely varied, spanning from judicial clerkships in the Hon'ble Courts in India to internships at pre-eminent law firms. However, since integrity and perseverance are the unifying principles that transcend all professions, they bond students in their pursuits.

The university has played a pivotal role in fostering the students' professional development and personal enlightenment over the glorious course of the past years. As the students approach their final year at HNLU, they express gratitude to both the institution and their peers for their collective influence in moulding them into responsible and unique individuals.

We sincerely hope that these attributes of their cohort will be communicated to you. We eagerly anticipate your participation in a productive and gratifying voyage that lies ahead.

RECRUITMENT PROCESS

Pre-placement talks:

Recruiters are encouraged to conduct Pre-Placement Talks (PPT) for interested students in the University giving important information such as the profile of the organization, career prospects, compensation packages, etc. These PPTs can be conducted at any time before the Pre-Interview Screening.

2

Pre-Interview Screening Process:

Recruiters can conduct a Pre-Interview Screening Process including group discussions any time before the interview day. Recruiters are free to determine their own policy for the Screening Process to shortlist students. In case the Recruiter has no particular method of Pre-Interview Screening, the curriculum vitae of all interested students shall be forwarded to the Recruiter.

3

Final Interview:

The Recruiter shall formulate a Final Interview List subsequent to the completion of the Pre-Interview Screening Process and the same shall be communicated to the RCC at least 48 (forty-eight) hours prior to the interview along with the list of the Waitlisted candidates.

In case any Applicant who is selected in the Final Interview List is not available for the interview then the Recruiter can interview the Waitlisted candidates instead, if the Recruiter considers it appropriate. In case the Recruiter has no procedure for Pre-Interview Screening, the list of interested students shall automatically become the Final Interview list.

Disclosure of Offers:

The results will be declared simultaneously by the RCC at the end of the day to ensure that no Recruiter is prejudiced. The Recruiters will be required to disclose the results of their Final Interviews and any Offer made to the Applicant(s) only through the RCC which will be communicated in a sealed envelope.

RECRUITMENT COORDINATION COMMITTEE

The Recruitment Coordination Committee is the student body officially designated with the responsibility of facilitating the procedure of recruitment for the graduating Class of 2025. The purpose of establishing the RCC is to create a framework within which the representatives of various organizations in the legal industry can interact with the students of the batch for the purpose of recruitment. The Committee, governed by its own Constitution, comprises a group of seven students who have been elected by the Class democratically, through the process of secret ballot voting.

This Brochure constitutes an official invitation to all prospective Recruiters, to take part in the placement proceedings happening at the University, beginning in the month of April 2025.
