About CG-LEARN

The Chhattisgarh Legal Education and Research Network (CG-LEARN) is an initiative aimed at establishing a consortium of legal institutions engaged in legal education across the state of Chhattisgarh. It seeks to foster collaboration among law schools, law departments of public and private universities to raise the standards of legal education and research in the State. CG-LEARN will enable institutions to share expertise, learning resources and good practices to raise the bar of legal education in the State.

Objectives of CG-LEARN

1. To enhance the deliverables of legal institutions across the State to National and International Standards;
2. To promote reforms in legal education by addressing challenges and introducing innovative curricula, teaching methods, and materials;
3. To facilitate faculty & student exchange programs, inter-institutional activities, and capacity-building initiatives;
4. To foster skills in research, publication, and pedagogy among teachers;
5. To encourage interdisciplinary approaches, exploration of new courses, and enhance clinical legal education for better employability; and
6. To establish partnerships with national and international bodies to create a focal point for legal scholars in Chhattisgarh.

About the Event

The celebration of Samvidhāna Divas and launch of CG-LEARN on 26th November as part of the Constitution @75 series of HNLU will herald new vistas for legal education progress in the State. The CG-LEARN to have its secretariat at HNLU will have elected office bearers and associate members to chalk out programmes to actualize the stated objectives. The CG-LEARN will have an annual conclave from 2025 after the establishment of the registered society with a constitution and will develop innovative deliverables. The platform will have interdisciplinary linkages with technology, science, arts and management institutions in Chhattisgarh which is the fastest emerging hub of knowledge initiatives. CG-LEARN will interface with the Chhattisgarh Government on legislative and public policy reforms for the progress of the State. The interested academicians from the State of Chhattisgarh can register for this event by clicking this link: <https://forms.gle/swW37rWczd9AA1JS9>
