About the Fellowship Programme

The HNLU Lawyers Fellowship Programme supports early-career litigators through financial assistance, mentorship, and structured training. The programme aims to strengthen district-level litigation capacity, enhance access to justice, and create a network of socially committed legal professionals.

About the Role

The Coordinator will be responsible for the day-to-day implementation and operational management of the Fellowship Programme, ensuring smooth coordination between fellows, the University, and external stakeholders.

Key Responsibilities:

1. Coordinating daily programme operations and fellow engagement
2. Assisting in the selection and onboarding process of Fellows
3. Managing fellows’ schedules, training logistics, and field activities
4. Supporting the organisation of workshops, training sessions, and review meetings
5. Maintaining regular communication with Fellows and tracking their progress
6. Assisting in monitoring and evaluation of programme activities
7. Liaising with district-level institutions, including DLSAs and bar associations

8. Supporting documentation, reporting, and administrative processes
9. Performing any other duties assigned by the Registrar/Faculty In-charge/Programme Manager/University

Important notes:

1. The position is contractual in nature for a maximum period of 27 months/completion of the project and may be terminated by either side upon one month's notice or payment of one month's salary in lieu thereof.
2. The appointment will be given initially for a period of one year which shall be extended based on performance.
3. The University retains the discretion not to make any appointment to this vacancy, to make an appointment at a revised remuneration, or to make an appointment with a modified job description and to fix revised qualification and requirements.
4. The selected candidate will be based at HNLU Raipur, with periodic travel across districts in the state of Chhattisgarh.
5. No present employee of HNLU (Teaching/Non-Teaching) is eligible to apply.
